ARTICLE IV (INDEMNIFICATION)

IV Personal Liability of Directors and Director Indemnification:

IV.1 The corporation shall indemnify each of its directors against all reasonable expenses actually and necessarily incurred by a director in connection with the defense of any litigation to which the individual director is made a party because that person was a director of the corporation, under and subject to the terms and conditions of the article in these by-laws relating to “Indemnification” herein.

IV.2 A director of the corporation shall not be personally liable for monetary damages for any action taken unless the director has breached or failed to perform the duties of the director’s office and the breach or failure to perform constitutes self-dealing, willful misconduct or recklessness. This shall not apply to the responsibility or liability of a director pursuant to any criminal statute or the liability of a director for the payment of taxes pursuant to federal, state or local law. The provisions of this section are intended to exempt the directors of the corporation from liability to the maximum extent permitted under Pennsylvania law pursuant to the Pennsylvania Non-Profit Corporation Law.

IV.3 The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a representative of the corporation for expenses, including attorney’s fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the director in connection with the action or proceeding if the director acted in a good faith and in a manner the director reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not of itself create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner he or she believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interest of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.
